Clemson University
3 1604 019 750 167

Statues, monuments and memorials in the parks of the national capital

june 1977

GOVT. DOCUMENTS
REPOSITORY ITEM

STATUES, MONUMENTS AND MEMORIALS LOCATED IN THE PARKS OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

June 1977

U. S. Department of the Interior

National Park Service

National Capital Region

Prepared by:

Joseph A. Ronsisvalle
Office of Cooperative Activities
National Capital Region
1100 Ohio Drive, SW.
Washington, D.C.

The photographs contained in this document
are from the records of the National Capital Region,
National Park Service.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Arlington House (Robert E. Lee Memorial)	Grounds of Arlington National Cemetery	George Hadfield Architect	The mansion once known as "Arlington House" was built by George Washington Park Custis, adopted son of George Washington. Custis was father-in-law of Robert E. Lee of Civil War fame. Lee lived in the mansion for almost 30 years. Purchased by the government for $150,000 in 1883. Restoration authorized March 4, 1925, by Congress, under Secretary of War. Mansion was transferred to Department of the Interior in 1933. (69 Stat. 190) (73 Stat. 390)
Arlington Memorial Bridge	Crosses Potomac at Lincoln Memorial to Arlington National Cemetery, Va.		The bridge symbolizes the binding together of the North and the South in one great Union. It was constructed by the Arlington Memorial Bridge Commission and the Department of the Interior at a cost of $14,750,000. Dedicated January 16, 1932. (43 Stat. 974)
Arlington Memorial Bridge Equestrian Statues	Memorial Bridge Plaza and Rock Creek Parkway approach	James Fraser and J.H. Friedlander	Bronze statue groups of horses and figures, cast in Italy as a gift from Italy to the United States. These are surfaced with pure gold. The groups symbolize the Arts of Peace (Aspiration and Literature) by Fraser and the Arts of War (Valor and Sacrifice) by Friedlander. Dedicated September 26, 1951.
Armillary Sphere	Meridian Hill Park, Lower Gardens, 16th and Euclid Sts., NW. (In storage pending repairs)	Carl P. Jennewein	Ancient astronomical instrument with signs of the Zodiac in relief and hours in Roman numerals. In bronze measuring 16 ft. in circumference, on octagon base of green granite. In center of sphere is a winged child greeting the sun. Cost was $31,199. A gift of Washington Artist, Bertha Noyes. Pedestal cost $972. Completed October 1935.

Francis Asbury
16th & Mt. Pleasant St., NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Armillary Sphere CONTINUED			Authorized by Act approved June 10, 1932 (47 Stat. 298).
Artigas, Jose	U.S. Reservation 110, 18th St. and Constitution Ave., NW.	Juan M. Blanes	Artigas, born in Uruguay, led the Gauchos in revolt for the independence of Uruguay in 1811. He was known as Father of Uruguayan Independence. Statue of bronze on granite pedestal. Cost of statue was $8,250 which was raised by public subscription of school children and citizens of Uruguay. Presented to U.S. by Republic of Uruguay. Pedestal and landscaping totaled $22,875. Authorized by Public Law 788, 80th Congress June 26, 1948 for acceptance and erection. (62 Stat. 1051)
Asbury, Francis	U.S. Reservation 309-B, 16th St. & Mt. Pleasant St., NW.	Augustus Lukeman	Bronze equestrian statue 10 1/2 ft. high on marble pedestal in memory of the pioneer Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Erected by the Francis Asbury Memorial Assn., at cost of $50,000 under Act approved February 28, 1919. (40 Stat. 1213). Dedicated October 15, 1924. Known as "The Prophet of the Long Road," Asbury is honored for greatly promoting patriotism, education, morality and religion in the American Republic.
Barry, Commodore John	In center of west side of Franklin Park, 14th between I & K Sts., NW.	John J. Boyle	Bronze standing figure on marble pedestal. Act approved June 8, 1906 (34 Stat. 223). Barry born in Tacumshane, County Wexford, Ireland in 1745, was an immigrant to America who joined the American colonial navy and was the first officer to capture an enemy war vessel in the Revolutionary War. Erected by government at cost of $50,000. Dedicated May 16, 1914.

Mary McLeod Bethune
Lincoln Park

Simon Bolivar
18th and Virginia Avenue, NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Bethune, Mary McLeod	Lincoln Park East Capitol St. & 11th St., NE.	Roberts Berks	The memorial to Mary McLeod Bethune was authorized by the Congress under Public Law 86-484, approved June 1, 1960, and amended by Public Law 89-192, September 21, 1965; July 29, 1971, Cost $150,000. Dedication, July 10, 1974.
Bolivar, Simon	U.S. Reservation 383, 18th St. at C St., and Virginia Ave., NW.	Felix de Weldon	Bronze equestrian statue on Swedish granite pedestal to Simon Bolivar, hero and liberator of South America, was a gift of the Venezuelan Government (Bolivar's native country) to United States. Act of July 5, 1949 (63 Stat. 406) (69 Stat. 191) authorized its erection on public grounds. Dedicated February 27, 1959. The statue is flanked by a marble walk, seats, and a six-jet-spray fountain pool. Each jet represents one of the countries liberated. Cost of statue was $250,000.
Boy Scouts of America	The Ellipse 15th St. between E St. & Constitution Ave., NW.	Donald DeLue	This memorial dedicated November 7, 1964. Authorized under Public Law 86-111. Financed by individual contributions of boys and leaders of the Boy Scouts of America. A Scout in Uniform is represented hiking into the future with faith and confidence; two classic figures walking behind the Scout represent American manhood and womanhood. (73 Stat. 261)
Baruch, Bernard Bench of Inspiration	Lafayette Park Penn. Ave. between Jackson & Madison Places	None	A commemorative bench with bronze plaque set in granite block in honor of the elder statesman on his 90th birthday. The Bench of Inspiration was financed by the National Capital Area Council and Boy Scouts of America. Dedicated on August 16, 1960.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Butt-Millet Memorial	Ellipse on grounds south of White House	Daniel Chester French	Memorial fountain of marble and granite erected by friends in honor of Major Archibald W. Butt, Military Aide to Presidents Roosevelt and Taft, and to Francis Davis Millet, Painter and member of Fine Arts Comm. Act approved August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 644) without expense to U.S. Completed 1913, no dedication. Both died in the Titanic sinking.
Byrd, Admiral Richard Evelyn	Memorial Avenue near Arlington National Cemetery	Felix de Weldon	Eight-foot bronze standing figure on base of white carrara marble, shows Admiral Byrd as polar explorer. The statue was authorized by the 86th Congress on September 21, 1959 (P.L. 290) (73 Stat. 569) and was commissioned by the National Geographic Society at no cost to the government, as sponsor and collaborator with Admiral Byrd in many of his expeditions and in appreciation of his great contribution in exploring the Artic and the Antarctic regions for the United States. Dedicated November 13, 1961. Byrd, a native of Virginia, was born October 25, 1888. A graduate of the Naval Academy, Byrd distinguished himself as a polar explorer. In 1955, he was appointed officer in charge of the U.S. Antarctic Programs and the International Geophysical Year. He returned to Antarctica with Operation Deepfreeze December 1955-February 1956. He died March 11, 1957 and is buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Buchanan, President James	Meridian Hill Park Lower Gardens, 16th & Euclid Sts., NW.	Hans Schuler	Bronze seated statue of President Buchanan. Platform is granite, with two figures representing Law and Diplomacy. Buchanan, a Pennsylvanian, was the 15th President of the United States. He served in the War of 1812 and was later a Representative in Congress, U.S. Minister to Russia and to Great Britain, a Senator, and Secretary of State. Statue was gift of Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnson, Buchanan's niece. Cost was $115,000. Dedicated June 26, 1930 (40 Stat. 632) June 27, 1918.
Burke, Edmund	U.S. Reservation 68, Massachusetts Ave. bet. 11th & 12th Sts. NW.	Copy of statue by Harvard Thomas of England	Standing bronze figure on granite pedestal. Burke, British statesman and orator, was born in Dublin, Ireland. He abandoned legal studies for literary work and advocated liberal treatment of the American colonies. Donated to people of America by Sir Charles Cheers through the Sulgrave Institution under Act approved April 25, 1922 (42 Stat. 499) without expense to U.S. Dedicated November 12, 1922.
Columbus, Christopher	U.S. Reservation 334 in front of National Visitor Center	Lorado Taft	A semi-circular marble fountain to Christopher Columbus 66 ft. wide and 43 ft. high with figures. From the front of the shaft, which is crowned with a globe supported by eagles, is a prow of a ship with winged figurehead symbolizing Discovery. The ship is the pedestal for the figure of Columbus. Erected by the government at a cost of $100,000. Act approved March 4, 1907 (34 Stat. 1413). Dedicated June 8, 1912.

Dante (Dante Alighieri)
Meridian Hill Park

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Cuban Friendship Urn	In Storage	Unknown	This marble urn sculpted from fragments of a marble column erected in Havana as a Memorial to Victims of the Maine, was presented by the Republic of Cuba to President Collidge on his visit to Havana to attend Pan-American Congress in January 1928. Act approved May 22, 1928 (45 Stat. 713) authorized its acceptance and erection on public grounds. Set in place December 1928. Removed from site because of construction.
Daguerre, Louis	In storage pending relocation due to construction of Hirshorn Museum	Jonathan S. Hartley	The memorial to Louis J. M. Daguerre, inventor of daguerre-type photography, is a bronze head of the inventor at the base of a dark granite globe depicting the earth, on a pedestal of granite. Figure in bronze of woman kneeling to place wreath about head and globe is at top of pedestal. Memorial which cost $100,000 was presented to Government by the Photographic Museum April 15, 1890.
Dante (Dante Alighieri)	Meridian Hill Park Lower Gardens, 16th and Euclid Sts., NW.	Ettore Ximenes of Rome, Italy	Bronze standing figure of Dante, renowned poet, shows him in gown of scholar and crowned with laurel wreath. On pedestal of sea-green granite. Act approved February 14, 1922 (42 Stat. 366) authorized erection on public grounds. Presented at no cost to U.S. by Carlo Barsotti, New York, editor of Italian newspaper, in name of Americans of Italian birth living in the U.S. Cost was $50,000. Dedicated December 1, 1921.
Darlington, Joseph Fountain	Judiciary Square, 5th & D Sts., NW. (Now District of Columbia)	Carl P. Jennewein	Marble fountain with bronze deer and female figure honors the famous Pennsylvania counsellor teacher and lover of mankind. Act approved March 3, 1923 (42 Stat. 1444) authorized its erection on public grounds. Presented to

(continued on p. 10)

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
			Washington by Washington Bar Association at cost of $9,173. Placed in park October 1923. (Judiciary Square along with statue was transferred to the District of Columbia on 2/6/70.
Discus Thrower or Discobolos	Virginia Avenue at 21st St., NW., U.S. Reservation 105 (E.J. Kelly Park)	Copy of ancient Greek Sculptor Mirone	Bronze reproduction of the Discus Thrower. Cast in Florence, Italy. It rests on a marble column excavated from the ancient ruins of the city of Rome. Gift of appreciation from Italy to U.S. for our efforts in returning the original Mirone statue and others seized by Nazis, to Italy after World War II. Cost was $50,000. Dedicated March 1, 1956.
D.C. World War Memorial	West Potomac Park south of Reflecting Pool	Architects were Frederick Brooke, Horace W. Peaslee & Nathan C. Wyeth	Circular marble bandstand of Doric type, accommodating 80-piece band, honors the Armed Forces from the District of Columbia who served their country in World War I. Inscribed with name of war dead. Erected by the D.C. War Memorial Commission at cost of $169,022 under Act of Congress approved June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 666) without cost to U.S. Dedicated November 11, 193
Downing, Andrew Jackson	Mall - Smithsonian Institution grounds	Robert Launitz	Large marble ornamental vase 4 ft. high and 3 ft. wide honoring the distinguished landscape gardener Andrew Jackson Downing. Erected September 1856 by the American Pomological Society at cost of $1,585.
Douglas, Justice William O.	Chesapeake and Ohio Canal 30th Street, N.W.	Wendy Ross	Bronze sculptured bust dedicated on May 17, 1977, by the National Park Service in recognition of Justice Douglas' contributions toward the establishment of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal National Historical Park. Cost of casting in bronze $1,200; cost of grey granite pedestal $2,378. National Park Service appropriated funds, authorized by P.L. 95-11 (91 Stat. 21) March 15, 1977.

Adm. Samuel F. Dupont
Dupont Circle

D.C. War Memorial
West Potomac Park

Robert Emmet
24th and Massachusetts Avenue, NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Dupont Memorial Fountain to Admiral Dupont	Dupont Circle Connecticut Ave. & 19th & P St., NW.	Daniel Chester French	Beautiful marble fountain with three figures on the supporting column representing the Sea, Wind and Stars. It commemorates Admiral Samuel Francis Dupont who distinguished himself as a Civil War naval commander for the United States. Act approved February 26, 1917 (39 Stat. 944) authorized erection of a fountain to replace pedestrian statue of Admiral Dupont by Launt Thompson (latter statue now in Brandywine Parkway, Wilmington, Delaware). Erected by Dupont family at cost of $77,521, the fountain was dedicated 12/20/21.
Emmet, Robert (1778-1803)	U.S. Res. 302, Mass. Ave. & 24th St., NW.	Jerome Conner	This standing figure of Robert Emmet, Irish Patriot and an early leader in the cause of Irish independence, was presented to the United States in 1916. It is on indefinite loan from the Smithsonian Institution. Statue dedicated April 22, 1966.
Ericsson, John	West Potomac Park south of Lincoln Memorial on Ohio Drive	J.E. Fraser	Seated figure of carved pink granite of Ericsson honors him as inventor of the screw propellor and designer of the iron-clad Monitor. It is the largest single block of granite outside of Egypt. Figure is surrounded by allegorical group. Granite base is 150 ft. in diameter. Approved by Act of August 31, 1916, (39 Stat. 671). Erected by U.S. Government and private subscription by Americans of Scandinavian descent at cost of $60,000. Dedicated May 29, 1926.

Admiral David G. Farragut
17th and K Streets, NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Farragut, Admiral David G.	Farragut Square 17th & K Sts., NW. Center of Park	Mrs. Vinnie Hoxie	Admiral Farragut, born in Tennessee, was the first Admiral in the U.S. Navy, a title especially created for him by Congress. During Civil War, he captured New Orleans from Confederates, and controlled the Mississippi. Statue is standing figure made from metal taken from Admiral Farragut's flagship "Hartford" and is 10 ft. high on a granite pedestal. Erected by U.S. Government under Act approved April 16, 1872 (17 Stat. 395). Dedicated April 25, 1881.
First Air Mail Flight Marker	West Potomac Park	None	Granite boulder with bronze plaque given by Aero Club of Washington on May 15, 1958. Commemorates the 40th anniversary of Air Mail service where first scheduled flight began on May 15, 1918 connecting Washington, Philadelphia and New York.
First Division Memorial	President's Park south of Executive Office Building	Daniel Chester French	Eighty-foot marble shaft with bronze figure of Victory at top. Erected by Memorial Association of the First Division in memory of dead of the Division in World War I, who served gallantly in the major campaigns. At base is bronze plaque with 5,500 names. Act approved 12/16/21 (42 Stat. 349) authorized its erection on public grounds without expense to U.S. Cost was $150,000; dedicated October 4, 1924. Public Law 111-80 Congress, 6/25/47 authorized an addition to the monument in memory of dead of the Division in World War II. P.L. 93-384, August 23, 1974, authorized addition to the dead of the First Division, United States Forces in Vietnam.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Ford's Theatre	10th St. between E & F Sts., NW.	James J. Gifford (designer & builder)	The Ford Theatre was erected in 1863 by John A. Ford. It was here that President Lincoln was assassinated by Booth. In 1866 the government purchased the building at a cost of $100,000. The Lincoln Museum was installed in the building and dedicated February 12, 1932. (14 Stat. 23). Closed November 1964 for restoration. Reopened in 1967.
Fort Stevens Monument and Marker	Fort Stevens at 13th St. & Rittenhouse St., NW.	None	Granite boulder with bronze plaque given by the Associated Survivors, Sixth Army Corps. Commemorates place where President Lincoln stood under enemy fire during Battle of Fort Stevens. Boulder was placed in November 1911; the plaque was dedicated July 12, 1920.
Fort Stevens G.A.R. Plaque	Ft. Stevens, 13th & Rittenhouse Sts., NW.	Architectural sculptor, John J. Early	Bronze plaque 4 ft. by 2 ft. depicts a scale model of Fort Stevens as it was at time of the Civil War, and is on a mosaic concrete base. The memorial, which cost $695, was erected by the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War 1861-1865, without expense to the U.S. under permit from National Capital Parks issued May 11, 1936. Dedicated September 20, 1936.
Franklin, Benjamin	10th & Pennsylvania Ave., NW. Under D.C. Jurisdiction	Jacques Jouvenal	Statue in marble of standing figure of Franklin as he appeared at court of Louis XVI at Versailles on occasion of first treaty between U.S. and a foreign power. Gift of Stilson Hutchins, founder of Washington Post in 1889. Act approved July 19, 1888 (25 Stat. 627) authorized the Commissioners of D.C. to designate part of the streets or public places for erection of statue. It was dedicated January 1889.

President James Garfield
First & Maryland Avenue, SW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Galvez, Bernardo de	Virginia Avenue & C Sts., NW. (Opposite Dept. of State) Res. 720	Juan De Avalos	Bronze equestrian statue authorized by Public Law 94-287, May 21, 1976. The statue is a gift of the King of Spain in recognition of the Nation's Bicentennial. Galvez was Military Governor of Louisiana by royal decree on July 10, 1776. He conducted a vigorous campaign against the British, with the conquest of Pensacola in 1781. The statue was dedicated on June 3, 1976 by His Majesty King Juan Carlos of Spain.
Garfield, President James	U.S. Reservation 202 First & Maryland Ave., SW.	John Quincy Adams Ward	Standing bronze figure of Garfield on a granite pedestal with three bronze figures at base, depicts him as student, warrior and stateman. He served as a Brig. General in Civil War, as Representative, Senator, and 20th President of the U.S. Erected jointly by the government and Society of Army of Cumberland.
George Washington Memorial Parkway	Area from Ft. Washington, Md. to Great Falls, Md., and from Mt. Vernon to Great Falls, Va. Includes Mt. Vernon Mem. Highway		Act approved May 29, 1930, authorized the building of the George Washington Memorial Parkway (46 Stat. 482). The parkway, which includes the Mt. Vernon Memorial Highway from Arlington Memorial Bridge to Mt. Vernon will also include a parkway along the shores of the Potomac River from Mt. Vernon to Ft. Washington to a similar point above Great Falls, Md.
Gibbons, Cardinal James	16th St. & Park Rd., NW., U.S. Reservation 309-G	Leo Lentelli	The beloved Cardinal Gibbons born in Maryland, who served as priest and bishop, and Chaplain at Ft. McHenry, was instrumental in establishing Catholic University here. He was created cardinal in 1886. The bronze statue shows him seated in official robes of the church, and is on a granite pedestal with a granite, marble and reinforced concrete platform. It was erected by the Knights of Columbus without expense to the U.S., under Act approved April 23, 1928 (45 Stat. 453). Cost $35,998; dedicated August 14, 1932.

Samuel Gompers
10th and Massachusetts Avenue, NW.

President Ulysses S. Grant
First Street between Pennsylvania and Maryland Avenues

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Gompers, Samuel	U.S. Reservation 69 10th St. & Mass. Ave., NW.	Robert Aitken	Gompers, of English birth was the noted labor leader who founded the American Federation of Labor and became its first president. The statue is a seated bronze figure on marble pedestal and has allegorical figures in the background representing labor. Erected by the A.F. of L. at a cost of $117,408 without expense to the U.S., under Act approved March 5, 1928 (45 Stat. 193). Dedicated October 7, 1933.
Grant, President Ulysses S.	Union Square, 1st St., bet. Penn. Ave. & Md. Ave.	H.M. Shrady	The largest equestrian statue in the U.S. pays tribute to the famous Civil War General who became the 18th President. The monument consists of a marble platform 252 feet long and 69 feet wide with mounted figure of Grant. On the right is a group depicting a calvary charge and on left side is a battery of artillery. This is second largest equestrian statue in the world, the first being that of Italy's Victor Emanuel in Rome. Erected by the government under Act approved February 23, 1901 largest expenditure for statuary made by Congress. Dedicated April 27, 1922.
Greene, General Nathanael	Stanton Park, 5th and C Sts., NE.	Henry K. Brown	The bronze equestrian statue of this Revolutionary War General is believed to be the best of its type in Washington. Greene, a native of Rhode Island, succeeded General Gates as Commander of the Army of the South and drove the British forces from Georgia and the Carolinas in 1782. Erected by the Government under Act approved June 23, 1874 (18 Stat. 209) at a cost of $50,000 including pedestal. Dedicated in 1877.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Gross, Samuel D.	On loan to Temple University, Phila., Pa., School of Medicine	A. Sterling Calder	This bronze standing figure of Dr. Samuel Gross is on a red granite pedestal. It was erected by the Physicians and Surgeons of the United States to honor Dr. Gross' distinguished contributions to medicine and surgery. The Congress approved an Act of March 2, 1895 (28 Stat. 973) for its erection and appropriated $1,500 for a pedestal. The statue was made at no expense to the U.S. Dedicated May 6, 1897.
Hahnemann, Samuel	U.S. Reservation 64, Mass. Ave., bet. 15th & 16th Sts., NW. east of Scott Circle	Charles Niehaus	Seated bronze figure on a great carved exedra in front of a niche and canopy. A small fountain is in center. This is a beautiful and imposing statue to the founder of the Science of Homeopathy and leader of medical reformation in the 19th century. Erected by the American Institute of Homeopathy at a cost of $75,000. Under Act approved January 31, 1900 (31 Stat. 709) Congress appropriated $4,000 for a foundation. Dedicated June 21, 1900.
Hale, Nathan	Grounds of Justice Dept. Bldg. Under Jurisdiction of GSA	Bela Lyon Pratt	Gift of U.S. from estate of George Dudley Seymour, New Haven, Connecticut. Authorized by Public Law 683 - 79th Congress, approved August 8, 1946. Replica of figure of Yale University Campus; formerly at Hale's birthplace in South Coventry, Connecticut. (owned by Mr. Seymour).

Joan of Arc
Meridan Hill Park

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Hancock, Winfield Scott, General	Pennsylvania Ave. at 7th St., NW. U.S. Reservation 36	Henry Ellicott	Bronze equestrian statue on red granite base in honor of this Civil War general who successfully repelled the Confederate attack in battle of Gettysburg. Erected by the government at cost of $50,000 under Act approved March 2, 1889 (25 Stat. 972). Dedicated May 12, 1896.
Henry, Professor Joseph	Smithsonian Grounds north of Smithsonian Building	W. W. Story	This bronze standing figure of Henry, first Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, was erected by the government in recognition of his scientific achievements under Act approved June 1, 1880 (21 Stat. 154), at a cost of $15,000. Henry developed an improved electro-magnet and method of producing an inducted current. Dedicated April 19, 1882.
House where Lincoln Died (Petersen House)	10th St., NW. bet. E & F Sts.	None	The Petersen House, located directly across the street from the famous Ford's Theatre, was the house where Lincoln was taken and where he died on April 15, 1865 after receiving his fatal wound in the Ford's Theatre on the previous night. It was purchased by the government for $30,000 in 1896 and dedicated as a historical house museum 4/21/32.
Jackson, Andrew President	Center of Lafayette Park. Penn. Ave. bet. Madison & Jackson Place	Clark Mills	This bronze equestrian statue to Andrew Jackson, the 7th President of the United States, is cast from bronze cannon captured at Pensacola during his last campaign against the Spanish in 1818. The statue is remarkable for its perfect balance with a perfect center of gravity based in the charger's hind feet. The statue was Mills' first statue. Jackson achieved his greatest military fame at the

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Jackson, Andrew President Continued			Battle of New Orleans in 1815. Erected by the government at a cost of $28,500 plus a contribution of $12,000 from the Jackson Democratic Association of Washington, D.C. Act approved August 11, 1848 (9 Stat. 340). Dedicated 1/8/1853.
Japanese Lantern	Tidal Basin West Potomac Park	Unknown Attributed to Tokugawa Iemitsu	Granite lantern 8 1/2 feet high, circa 1651, was given to City of Washington by the Governor of Tokyo to commemorate Commodore Perry's historic visit to Japan. These lanterns used to honor the Shoguns of the Tokughawa period. It is used each year in a lighting ceremony to initiate the Cherry Blossom Festival. Presented March 30, 1958.
Japanese Pagoda	West side of Tidal Basin	Unknown	The pagoda, made of rough stone, is a gift to the City of Washington by the Mayor of Yokohama. It was dedicated April 18, 1958.
Joan of Arc	Meridian Hill Park Upper Gardens	Paul Dubois	Only equestrian statue of a woman in Washington. It is a bronze copy of the famous Dubois statue of Joan of Arc in front of the Rheims Cathedral in France. A gift from the Society of French women in exile in New York to the National Capital as a gesture of friendship between the two people. This statue of the girl who led the French armies against the British forces and raised the siege of Orleans, was cast under the direction of the Ministere de Beaux Art in Paris. Its erection at no cost to the U.S. was approved under Act of March 20, 1922 (42 Stat. 468). Dedicated 1/6/22.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Jefferson Memorial and Statue	West Potomac Park South bank of Tidal Basin	Statue - Rudulph Evans Memorial - Firm of John Russell Pope; Bas-relief group, Adolph Weinman	The Jefferson Memorial forms part of the axis of great national memorials including the Capitol, White House, Washington Monument, and Lincoln Memorial. The circular colonnaded structure is of white Georgia marble. Above the entrance is sculptural group showing Jefferson before the committee appointed to write the Declaration of Independence. The memorial room has four panels inscribed with Jefferson's writings. At center is heroic 19-foot bronze statue of Jefferson on a 6-foot base of black Minnesota granite. Cherry Blossoms given this memorial a beautiful setting.
Jefferson Pier Marker	South grounds of Washington Monument	None	Small monument marker placed by Thomas Jefferson and known as the Jefferson Pier to mark intersecting lines of the U.S. Capitol and the White House as a record of the demarcation of the first meridian of the United States. Erected December 18, 1804, the marker disappeared in 1874 but was later recovered and re-erected on December 2, 1889.
Jones, Commodore John Paul	West Potomac Park at foot of 17th St. & Tidal Basin	Charles Niehaus	The bronze standing figure of John Paul Jones is 10 feet high and has a backdrop, a marble rectangular pylon with marble bowls and fountains at the base. John Paul Jones, noted American naval commander, was the first to raise the new American flag on an American war vessel and the first to compel a foreign man-of-war to surrender to a U.S. vessel. Erected by the government at a cost of $50,000 under Act approved June 8, 1906 (34 Stat. 224). Dedicated April 17, 1912.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Johnson, Lyndon Baines President	Lady Bird Johnson Park	Harold Vogel Sculptor Meade Palmer Landscape Architect	The Lyndon Baines Johnson Memorial Grove on the Potomac was authorized by Public Law 93-211 approved, December 28, 1973. A living memorial has been designed to include a grove of stately white pine trees, trails, dogwoods and azaleas. A megalith (rough herin stone) is the feature sculpture within the memorial. It stands 19 feet high and 7 feet across the base and weighs approximately 43 tons. The stone came from a quarry near the L. B. Johnson Ranch. Public Law 94-162 (89 Stat. 870) approved December 20, 1975 amended Public Law 93-211.
Juarez, Benito Pablo	Virginia Ave., & New Hampshire Ave., NW., Res. 134		Erected by Mexican Government, authorized by Public Law 90-593, October 17, 1968. Benito Pablo Juarez (former President of Mexico, often referred to as the "Mexican George Washington").
Jusserand, Jules (Bench)	Rock Creek Park, Beach Drive south of Pierce Mill	J. H. Friedlander	Memorial bench of pink granite to Jules Jusserand, Ambassador from France and close friend of President Theodore Roosevelt. The bench is semi-circular with 4 steps and is 10 feet long. Erected by the Jusserand Memorial Committee at cost of $5,461 under Act approved June 17, 1935 (49 Stat. 386) without expense to the U.S. It is the first memorial erected on Federal property to a foreign diplomat. Dedicated November 7, 1936.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Kosciuszko, Thaddeus, General	Lafayette Park in NE corner	Antion Popiel	Bronze standing figure of General Kosciuszko, shown wearing Continental Army uniform, is on a granite pedestal. He is holding fortification plans for Saratoga. Of Lithuanian origin, Kosciuszko came to America at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War and played an important part in many famous battles. Erected by the Polish National Alliance of American and Polish American citizens at cost of $76,835, under Act approved April 18, 1904 (33 Stat. 588) which authorized $3,500 for preparing and improving the site. Dedication May 11, 1910.
Kutz Memorial Bridge	North tip of Tidal Basin at Independence Avenue	Constructed by D.C. Government	Memorial to General Charles W. Kutz, Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, for notable contributions to the development of Washington. A bronze plaque at the west abutment of bridge dedicates it to General Kutz. Construction and funds for bridge contained in Defense Highway Act of 1941 (P.L. 295, 55 Stat. 765).
Lafayette, General	SE corner of Lafayette Park	Alexandre Falquiere and Antonin Mercie	The memorial to General Lafayette and compatriots is of bronze on a marble pedestal, facing south. On the east and west sides are bronze figures of Comte d'Estaing, Comte DeGrasse, Chevalier Duportail and Comte de Rochambeau. On south side is bronze figure symbolizing America lifting up a sword to Lafayette. Erected by the government at a cost of $50,000 under Act approved March 3, 1885 (23 Stat. 508). Completed April 1891.

Lincoln Memorial
The U.S. Capitol
Washington Monument

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Lincoln, Abraham	Judiciary Square at south front of U.S. Courthouse (Now District of Columbia)	Lot Flannery	A life-size standing marble figure of Lincoln as a lawyer and statesman on a low granite pedestal is one of three statues to this great President. Erected by popular subscription of citizens of Washington at a cost of $25,000. Dedicated April 15, 1868. (42 Stat. 654). The square and statue were transferred to the D.C. on February 6, 1970.
Lincoln, Abraham	Lincoln Park at East Capitol St. bet. 11th & 13th Sts., NE.	Thomas Ball	Known as the Emancipation Group, this bronze statue of Lincoln shows him with Emancipation Proclamation in his right hand and holding his left hand over the head of a liberated slave, kneeling at his feet. Erected with funds contributed solely by emancipated citizens at cost of $18,000 under Act of June 23, 1874 (18 Stat. 225). Dedicated April 14, 1876.
Lincoln Memorial and Statue	West Potomac Park	Statue - Daniel Chester French; Stonework - E.C. Bairstow; Murals - Jules Guerin	The Lincoln Memorial, a majestic building of marble and granite, is a fitting memorial to this great President. Constructed in the Greek Doric manner, the exterior of the memorial symbolizes the Union of the United States of America; foundations are carried down to depth of from 44 to 65 feet and are in solid rock. The interior of the building is divided into 3 chambers. The center one contains the beautiful and brooding statue of Lincoln by Daniel Chester French; the side chambers contain the memorial speeches of Lincoln. Built by the government at a cost of $3,089,720 under Act approved February 9, 1911 (36 Stat. 899) which created the Lincoln Memorial Commission.

Guglielmo Marconi
16th and Lamont Streets, NW.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
Connecticut Avenue and M Street, NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Logan, General John A.	Logan Circle, Vermont Ave. at 13th and P Sts., NW.	Franklin Simmons	The memorial to this Civil War figure is a bronze equestrian statue on a base of pink granite. It is flanked by two female figures representing America at War and at Peace. General Logan was an American Soldier, diplomat, Congressman, Senator, Civil War leader, and Presidential candidate in 1884. The government and the Society of Tennessee erected the statue at a cost of $65,000 under Act approved March 2, 1889 (25 Stat. 971). Dedicated on April 9, 1901.
Longfellow, Henry Wadsworth	U.S. Reservation 150 Connecticut Ave. & M St., NW.	William Couper	A bronze seated figure of the great poet is on a base of pink granite and depicts Longfellow in academic gown. The statue was presented to the U.S. by the Longfellow Memorial Association at a cost of $21,000 under Act approved June 8, 1906 (34 Stat. 830) which appropriated $4,000 for the pedestal. Longfellow, a native of Maine, is famous as poet, scholar and professor at Harvard.
Marconi, Guglielmo	Reservation 309A 16th & Lamont Sts., NW.	Attilio Piccirilli	A bronze portrait bust in memory of the Italian who invented the wireless telegraphy, forerunner of modern radio, is on a double pedestal of Stony Creek granite on a base of granite. The bust is on top of smaller pedestal while on the larger pedestal is a gift by the Marconi Memorial Foundation at a cost of $32,555 under Act approved April 13, 1938. Completed June 30, 1941. (52 Stat. 217).

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Marine Corps War Memorial, U.S. (Iwo Jima Statue)	Arlington Blvd., Rte. 50 & Ridge Road, Arlington, Virginia	Felix de Weldon	This monument, erected by the U.S. Marine Corps and members of the Naval Service at a cost of $850,000, was modeled after the famous picture by Joe Rosenthal, depicting the flag raising on Mt. Suribachi, Iwo Jima. It was dedicated on November 10, 1954. The memorial honors all Marines who have died for their country. (61 Stat. 242) (66 Stat. 64) (66 Stat. 441).
McClellan, General George B.	U.S. Reservation 303, Connecticut Ave. & California St., NW.	Frederick MacMonnies	This bronze equestrian statue of General McClellan, who distinguished himself at the battle of Antietam and as head of the Army of the Potomac, stands at the crest of a hill overlooking Connecticut Avenue. It was erected by the government at a cost of $50,000; the Society of the Army of the Potomac provided funds for the improvement of the site. It was cast in France and was dedicated on May 2, 1907. Act approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1174).
McMillian, Senator James (Fountain)	In Storage	Herbert Adams	Removed from McMillian Reservoir site in 1941 when reservoir was enlarged. Given to U.S. Government by friends of Senator McMillian, who headed the commission for revival of L'Enfant Plans and restoration of the Mall.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
McPherson, James B. Major-General	McPherson Square Vermont Ave., 15th & K Sts., NW.	Louis Rebisso	The equestrian statue to General McPherson is made of captured cannon and is on a granite pedestal. It represents McPherson surveying a battlefield and was a gift of the Society of the Army of Tennessee, whose commander he was. General McPherson distinguished himself at the battle of Atlanta and was Chief Engineer on General Grant's staff. The statue was erected at a cost of $23,500 under Act approved March 3, 1875 (18 Stat. 391) and was dedicated on October 18, 1876.
Meade, George C. Major-General	In Storage Pending Relocation	Charles A. Grafly	General Meade, a Pennsylvanian, was a noted Army officer during the Civil War and achieved fame in his defense of Gettysburg while commanding the Union forces. He commanded the Army of the Potomac in 1863. The statue is of marble on a marble base with grouped figures. Erected as a gift by the State of Pennsylvania at a cost of $85,000 under Act of January 21, 1915 (38 Stat. 1222). Dedicated on October 19, 1927.
Mellon, Andrew W. Memorial Foundation	U.S. Reservation 546, Constitution Ave. at 6th St., NW.	Sculptor: Sidney Waugh Architects: Eggers and Higgins	This beautiful memorial fountain to Mellon, famous Pittsburgh industrialist, financier and noted statesman who was Ambassador to Great Britain, was a gift of the Andrew W. Mellon Memorial Committee costing $300,000. It is a 3-tiered bronze fountain which empties into a granite pool, and stands in front of the National Gallery of Art which was founded by Mellon. The memorial cost was without expense to the U.S., under authority of the Act approved July 16, 1947 (P.L. 194). Dedicated on May 9, 1952.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
National Cemetery Markers at Battleground National Cemetery (Four Monuments)	6625 Georgia Avenue NW., bet. Whittier & Van Buren Sts.	25th New York Volunteers; McGibbon & Curry	Granite statue of a soldier erected by State of New York in honor of war dead who died in defense of the Capital in 1864. Cost $7,500; erected under jurisdiction of War Department. Dedicated on September 19, 1914.
		122nd New York Volunteers; J.F. Manning & Company	Granite column with bronze plaque inscribed with battles and names of men who died in defense of Washington in 1864 from Onondaga County, New York. Erected by the State of New York under jurisdiction of War Department. Dedicated on July 12, 1904.
		150th Ohio National Guard, Company K	Granite column erected by State of Ohio for the Ohio National Guard Infantrymen who took part in the defense of Washington at Fort Stevens in July 1864. Erected under authority of War Department.
		98th Pennsylvania Volunteers; P.R. and Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania	Granite column inscribed with names of dead and wounded who fought in defense of Washington July 11 and 12, 1864. Erected by State of Pennsylvania under permit from War Department. Dedicated in 1891.
National Grange Marker	Madison Drive & 4th St. in Mall	None	Bronze tablet on a granite base, the Marker was erected by the National Grange near the site where the Grange was founded on December 4, 1867. Dedicated in 1951. P.L. 81-813 (64 Stat. 906).

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Navy-Marine Memorial	Lady Bird Johnson Park	Ernesto Begni del Piatta	This monument sculpted in aluminum consists of seven sea gulls in flight above the crest of a wave. It stands on a green granite base and was erected in honor of men of the U.S. who gave their lives or are still offering their lives in the performance of heroic deeds upon the waters of the world. Erected without cost to the U.S. by the Navy-Marine Memorial Association at a cost of $335,630 under Act of February 16, 1924 (43 Stat. 14) Congress appropriated $13, 000 for transporting and setting up the memorial. Dedicated on October 18, 1934. (48 Stat. 1243 - 53 Stat. 622).
Netherlands Carillon	Arlington Ridge Road near Arlington Blvd.		The Carillon has 49 bells and is a gift from the people of the Netherlands to the people of the U.S. Contributions from old and young of every walk of life in the Netherlands paid for this gift. The bells range in weight from 42 lbs. to 6 1/2 tons. The bells were cast in 3 different Netherlands foundries. Queen Juliana presented the gift on behalf of her people. Cost of the tower and bells was $75,000; it was dedicated on May 5, 1954. (P.L. 83-628 - 8/23/54) (68 Stat. 769).
Newlands, Francis Senator Memorial Fountain	U.S. Reservation 335A Chevy Chase Circle	Edward Donn, Architect	Memorial marble fountain to honor the late Senator from Nevada. Senator Newlands established Chevy Chase and was associated with mediation and consiliation in labor disputes. The fountain is 60 feet in diameter and throws a two-inch jet of water 30 feet in the air. Erected by Mrs. Newlands at cost of $12,000 without expense to U.S. under Act

Peace or Naval Monument
First St. & Pennsylvania Ave. NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Newlands, Francis Senator Memorial Fountain CONTINUED			approved April 8, 1932 (47 Stat. 78). Dedicated on October 12, 1933.
Nuns of the Battlefield	U.S. Reservation 151, Rhode Island Ave. & M St., NW.	Jerome Connor	Granite shaft with a bronze panel 9 by 5 feet portraying figures of 12 nuns representing the different orders of nuns who nursed the sick and wounded in the Civil War. Erected by Ladies' Auxiliary of Ancient Order of Hibernians in America under Act approved March 29, 1918 (40 Stat. 500) without expense to U.S. Cost $65,000. Dedicated on September 20, 1924.
One hundred and First Airborne Division	Memorial Ave. West of Arlington Memorial Bridge	Bernhard Zukerman Sculptor Harold J. Schaller Architect	Public Law 94-21 approved Feb. 6, 1976 authorized the 101st Airborne Division to erect the memorial. The memorial commemorates the men of the "Screaming Eagles" who have served their country in World War II and Vietnam. It consists of a bronze eagle with wings lifted, on a gray granite plenth. Also, behind the memorial is a low wall of granite which contains inscriptions associated with the Division. Dedicated 5/29/77
Original Patentees of the District of Columbia	Grounds south of White House west of 15th bet. E & Const. Ave., NW.	Delos Smith, Architect	A granite shaft on a granite base, erected April 25, 1936 by the National Society of Daughters of the American Colonists as a memorial to the 18 original patentees of land at Washington prior to 1700. Erected under Act approved February 12, 1936 at a cost of $1,000 without expense to the U.S. Dedicated on April 25, 1936. (49 Stat. 1137).
Peace of "Naval" Monument	U.S. Reservation 202A Pennsylvania Ave. at First St., NW.	Franklin Simons	The memorial to officers, sailors and marines in the U.S. Navy who fell in defense of the Union and Liberty of their country from 1861-1865, is of carrara marble, 44 ft. high. Figures at top represent America weeping on the shoulder of History. Other figures include Peace, Victory, Neptune and Mars. An irregular shaped fountain

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Peace or "Naval" Monument CONTINUED			bowl surrounds the memorial with fountain jets on each of the four sides. Erected by the government and contributions from Navy personnel under Act approved July 31, 1876 (19 Stat. 114). Sculpted in Rome in 1877 and dedicated that year.
Pike, General Albert	Relocation adjoining new Department of Labor at 3rd and D Streets, NW.	Gaetano Trentanove	This bronze standing figure of General Pike, honors him as a great freemason, soldier, author and philosopher. On a granite pedestal on which is seated a bronze figure of the Goddess of Masonry. Erected by Supreme Council Thirty-third Degree, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction. Act approved April 9, 1898 (30 Stat. 737) at no cost to the U.S. Memorial cost $15,000. Dedicated on October 23, 1901.
Pulaski, Count Casimir	U.S. Reservation 33, Pennsylvania Avenue at E & 13th Sts., NW.	Kazimierz Chodzinski	A bronze equestrian statue depicting Count Pulaski in his military uniform as a Revolutionary soldier. This is considered one of the best equestrian statues in the city. It rests on a granite pedestal 9 ft. high and a granite base. Pulaski came to America from Poland and after declaring his intention to become a citizen, fought under General Washington. He lost his lift in the seige of Savannah on October 11, 1779. Erected by the government at a cost of $40,000 under Act approved February 27, 1903. Dedicated May 11, 1910. (32 Stat. 908).

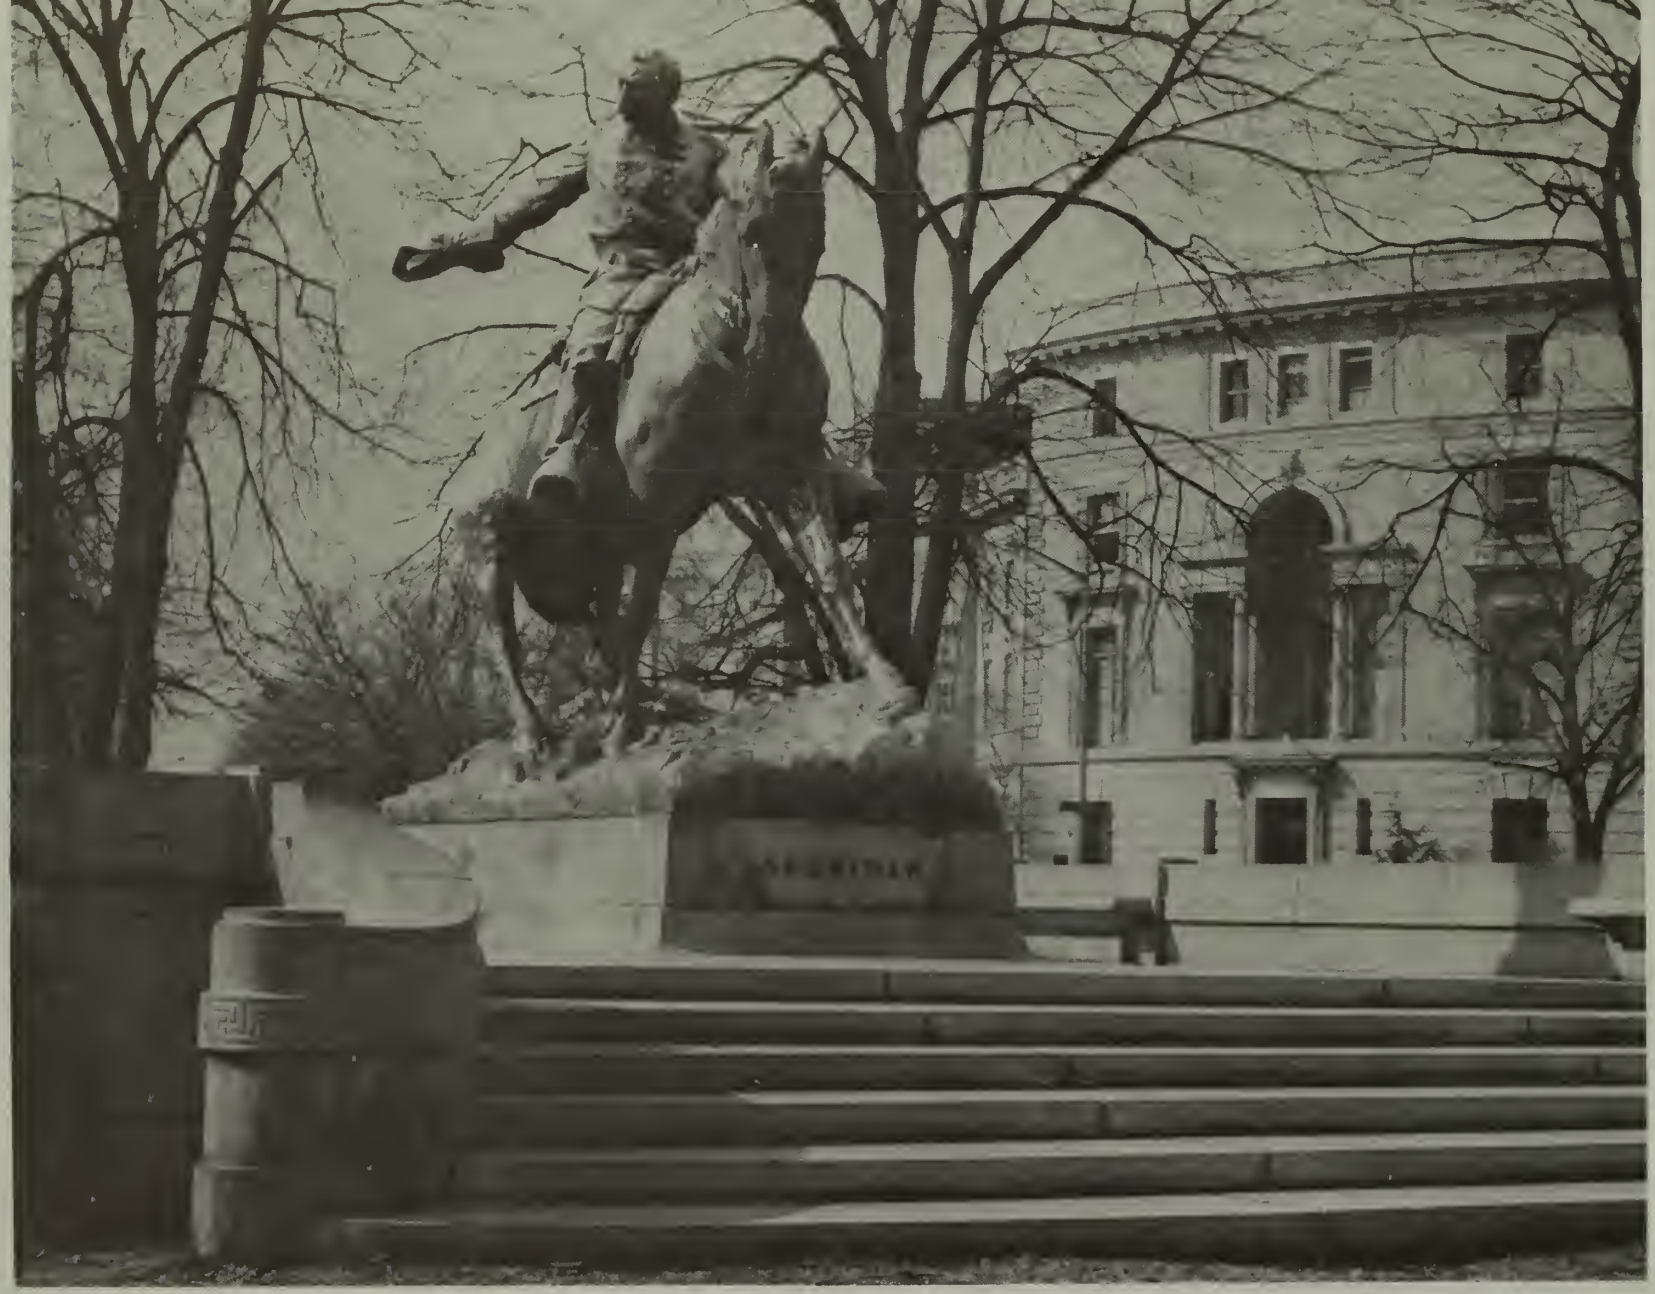
Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Rawlins, General John A.	U.S. Reservation 13 Rawlins Park, 18th and E Sts., NW.	Joseph A. Bailey	The statue of General Rawlins, standing figure 8 ft. high, was made from cannon he captured in the Civil War. General Rawlins, a Union officer from Illinois, was a close friend of General Grant and served as Secretary of War in Grant's first administration. Erected by the government at a cost of $13,000 under Act approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 388). The statue was moved from Rawlins Park to 9th St. and Pennsylvania Ave., in 1886 but was returned to Rawlins Park in October 1931. Its setting is the beautiful little park which bears his name.
Rittenhouse, Sarah Armillary Sphere	Montrose Park	Unknown	The memorial to Sarah Louise Rittenhouse (1845-1943) is an armillary sphere on a marble pedestal. She is considered the founder of Montrose Park in Georgetown and is given credit for saving the park area from a housing development planned in the early 1900's. This memorial was a gift from the Georgetown Garden Club under Act of July 27, 1953 (67 Stat. 196). Dedicated on November 9, 1956.
Rochambeau, Count Jean Baptiste	Lafayette Park, SW. corner	M. Hamar of Paris	This bronze standing figure of Count Rochambeau, on a granite pedestal, is a replica of one at Vendome, France, his birthplace. His family insignia is on one side and French coat of arms on the other. Rochambeau, noted French soldier, commanded the French Force that was dispatched in 1780 to aid the Americans in the Revolution. He joined Washington's forces at White Plains, N.Y., and assisted in forcing Cornwallis' surrender at Yorktown. Erected by the government at a cost of $22,500 under Act approved March 3, 1901. Two Acts were approved in 1902 appropriating $20,000 for expenses of members of French

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Rochambeau, Count Jean Baptiste CONTINUED			Government, Rochambeau's family and General Lafayette's family to attend the dedication on May 24, 1902.
Roosevelt, Franklin Delano Delano	Reservation 35, adjacent to National Archives Bldg. 9th & Penna. Ave., NW.	Eric Gugler	Dedicated April 12, 1965. Modest but dignified block of White Vermont marble. Preference of site and type of memorial indicated by former President Roosevelt in conversation with Justice Frankfuter in 1941. $12,000 cost of memorial met by private contributions.
Roosevelt, Theodore	Theodore Roosevelt Island and Statue Potomac River bet. Memorial and Key Bridges	Statue - Paul Manship; Designer of Memorial Eric Gugler; Erected by Baldi & Sons	A 17-ft. bronze statue of the 26th President stands in front of a 30-ft. shaft of granite overlooking an oval terrace. Step-down surrounding terrace is encircled by a moat with footbridges. Four granite slabs, each 21-ft. high and inscribed with Roosevelt sayings, rise from the lower terrace. Memorial cost $946,450, statue $139,000. Authorized by Act of Congress on February 12, 1925, Act of September 13, 1960, authorized expenditure of Federal funds for construction. Theodore Roosevelt Island, memorial to President Roosevelt, is set aside for recreation, nature study, and enjoyment of the public and contains 88 acres. This area has been restored to its natural state as a wildlife refuge and natural preserve in honor of the fabled "Roughrider" who was an ardent lover of nature. It was purchased by the Roosevelt Memorial Association for $334,000 and turned over to the government under Act approved May 21, 1932 (47 Stat. 163). A memorial to the President as approved October 1961 under Act of February 12, 1925, (43 Stat. 935) is located on the island.

President Theodore Roosevelt
Roosevelt Island

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
San Martin, Jose de General	U.S. Reservation 106 Virginia Avenue and 20th St., NW.	Copy of original by Dumont in Buenos Aires	Equestrian statue in Argentine copper of San Martin is mounted on stones and set on a foundation of brick and sand from San Lorenzo. It is a gift from the citizens of Argentina to the U.S., honoring San Martin as the founder of Argentine independence who led the liberating army across the Andes and gave freedom to Chile and Peru. Act approved June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 667) authorized its erection on public grounds. Dedicated on October 28, 1925. Relocated from original site in Judiciary Square in 1976.
Scott, Brevet Lt. General Winfield	Scott Circle, 16th and Massachusetts Ave., NW.	Henry K. Brown	This equestrian statue, made from cannon captured by General Scott during his Mexican Campaign, depicts him in field uniform. He is represented as the hero of the War of 1812, the Mexican War and Civil War. Erected by the government at a cost of $77,000 under Act of March 2, 1867 (14 Stat. 571 - 16 Stat. 308 and 17 Stat. 367). Base is carved from a single block of granite, the largest stone ever successfully quarried in this country at that time. Completed 1874.
Seabees of the U.S. Navy	Memorial Avenue Near Arlington National Cemetery	Felix de Weldon	Authorized by Public Law 92-422 approved September 18, 1972. The memorial depicts the Seabees as a builder, fighter and "Ambassador of Goodwill." The theme is that of a Seabee who has just dismounted from his bulldozer to greet and make friends with a small child, symbolic of children the world over.

Second Division Memorial
17th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW.



General Philip Sheridan
23rd Street & Massachusetts Avenue, NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Seabees of the U.S. Navy CONTINUED			The one and one half size figure of the Seabee is nine feet tall. It stands on a three foot pedestal which is centered in front of a semi-circular continuous bronze base-relief which portrays a panorama of Seabees at work at their various construction trades. Dedicated on May 27, 1974.
Second Division Memorial	Grounds south of White House at 17th Street and Constitution Ave. NW.	James Fraser	This granite shaft honors those of the Second Division who gave their lives in World War I in 1917-1919. It is in the form of a great open doorway flanked by wings on which are inscribed the names of the battles in which the Division participated. Erected by the Second Division at a cost of $60,000 under Act approved March 3, 1931 (46 Stat. 1515) at no expense to the U.S. Dedicated by the Second Division Memorial Association on July 18, 1936. Wings for Korea and WW II have now been added.
Serenity	Upper Gardens of Meridian Hill Park	Jose Clara	The Serenity statue is a seated figure of a woman made of white carrara marble, in memory of Lt. Commander William Henry Scheutze, U.S. Navy. Erected as a gift to the people of the U.S. by Charles Dearing under Act approved March 12, 1924 (43 Stat. 21) at a cost of $4,500. Completed in July 1925.
Sheridan, General Philip	Sheridan Circle Massachusetts Ave. & 23rd St., NW.	Gutzon Borglum	A bronze equestrian statue on a granite pedestal flanked by fountains, this memorial to General Sheridan was erected by the government and the Army of the Cumberland. General Sheridan, a native New Yorker, commanded the cavalry of the Army of the Potomac, engaged in numerous battles and helped force Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox. Erected under Act

Taras Shevchenko
23rd and P Streets, NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Sheridan, General Philip CONTINUED			approved March 2, 1889 (25 Stat. 971) at a cost of $54,000. Dedicated on November 25, 1908.
Sherman, General William Tecumseh	Sherman Square 15th and E Streets, NW.	Carl Rohl Smith and group of Danish sculptors	This bronze equestrian statue of the General is mounted on a granite pedestal and a square platform with a bronze soldier at each corner, representing the four branches of the service - infantry, artillery, cavalry, and engineers. General Sherman, one of the great Northern generals of the Civil War, was most noted for his march through Georgia and capture of Savannah. He commanded the Army of the Tennessee and succeeded Grant as Commander of the U.S. Army. Erected jointly by the government and the Army of Tennessee at a cost of $131,055 under Act approved July 5, 1892 (27 Stat. 74) and subsequent appropriations. Dedicated on October 15, 1903.
Shevchenko, Taras	U.S. Reservation 57D 22nd, 23rd & P Sts., NW.	Leo Mol	This memorial to the Ukrainian national poet was authorized by Public Law 86-749, approved 9/13/1960, for erection by the Shevchenko Memorial Committee of America, Inc. The total height of the memorial is 24 ft. the bronze figure is 14 ft. high. Excerpts from his poetry are inscribed on a Prometheus unit or slab 10 ft. high. The memorial was dedicated on June 27, 1964. (74 Stat. 884).
Stephenson, Dr. Benjamin F. (Grand Army of the Republic)	U.S. Reservation 36A 7th and C Sts., NW.	J.M. Rhind	A granite shaft with bronze figures symbolizing Fraternity, Loyalty, and Charity, honors Dr. Stephenson as organizer and founder of the Grand Army of the Republic. Erected by G.A.R. Memorial Association, at cost of $35,000 under Act of March 4, 1907 (34 Stat. 1424). Dedicated on July 3, 1909.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Thomas, Major General Geo. H.	Thomas Circle, 14th and Vermont Ave., NW.	J.Q.A. Ward	This 16-foot high bronze equestrian statue of General Thomas is a gift of the Army of the Cumberland Society in honor of this Virginia General who gained fame during the Civil War as the "Rock of Chickamauga" by his defense of that position in 1863. Erected at no cost to the U.S. under Act approved July 31, 1876 (19 Stat. 114) which appropriated $25,000 for a granite pedestal on a circular granite base. Dedicated on November 19, 1879.
Titanic Memorial	U.S. Reservation 717 SW. Waterfront Park, P St., SW.	Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney	A memorial to the men who perished in the wreck of the Titanic to save the lives of women and children abroad. It shows the figure of a man facing east, with outstretched arms in the form of a cross. It is carved of pink granite and has a semi-circular platform with a bench. Erected by the Women's Titanic Memorial Association, at a cost of $59,909 under Act approved March 3, 1917 (39 Stat. 1046) without expense to the U.S. Dedicated on May 26, 1931. Relocated from original site in Rock Creek and Potomac Parkway in 1968.
Truxton Fountain	In Storage		Memorializes Commodore Thomas Truxton, Naval officer of the Revolutionary War and hero of the Baroary Wars with France. Removed from North Capitol and Que Sts., when former was widened and circle obliterated in early 1940's.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
United Spanish War Veterans Memorial	Memorial Avenue west of Arlington Memorial Bridge	Theo. A. K. Kitson	This standing figure of "The Hiker" represents the veterans of the Spanish-American War 1898-1902. It was erected by the United Spanish War Veterans and affiliated organizations. Dedicated on July 24, 1965. (78 Stat. 992).
Von Steuben, General Frederick (Baron)	Lafayette Park in NW. corner	Albert Yaegers	This bronze standing figure of General Von Steuben shows him in the uniform of a Major General of the Continental Army. It is on a granite pedestal with bronze figure groups. Von Steuben was Aide-de-Camp to Frederick the Great and joined the American colonies in the Revolution to train the citizen - soldiers of America. Erected by the government at a cost of $50,000 under Act approved February 27, 1903 (32 Stat. 908). Dedicated on December 7, 1910.
Ward, General Artemas	Ward Circle, Massachusetts & Nebraska Aves., NW.	Leonard Crunelle	This memorial to General Ward is a bronze standing figure and shows the General in Continental Army uniform. It is on a granite pedestal. The model for his face was the life portrait by Charles Wilson Peale in Independence Hall at Philadelphia. General Ward was the first Commander-in-Chief of the American Armies in the Revolutionary War. He was relieved by General Washington at Boston. Erected by the President and Fellows of Harvard College at a cost of $50,000. Dedicated in 1938. (45 Stat. 689).

General Artemas Ward
Mass. & Nebraska Ave., NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Washington, George	Washington Circle U.S. Res. 26	Clark Mills	The bronze equestrian statue of General Washington depicts him in the uniform of Commander-in-Chief of the Continental Army. It is mounted on a marble pedestal. The face of the statue was modeled from the bust of Washington by Houdon. The statue represents the Virginia born Washington at the Battle of Princeton, so near the front lines his horse refused to advance. Acts of January 25, 1853 and February 24, 1860 appropriated $60,000 for statue and pedestal and transporting these to site (10 Stat. 153) and 12 Stat. 114). Dedicated 1860.
Washington Monument	Monument Grounds south of Constitution Ave. between 15th & 16th Sts., NW.	Robert Mills	This marble obelisk, 555 feet, 5 inches high, weighs 81,120 tons. The monument to the first President of the U.S. was erected in honor of his achievements and unselfish devotion in the founding of our Nation. It was originally built to a height of 150 feet by the Washington National Monument Society with funds raised by popular subscription, but work was stopped in 1854 for lack of funds. Under Act of August 2, 1876 (19 Stat. 123) the Congress authorized completion of the Monument. It cost $1,187,710 of which $300,000 was raised by the Washington Monument Society. Dedicated in February 1885.

Washington Monument
Constitution Ave. & 15th St., NW.

Name	Location	Sculptor	Description
Webster, Daniel	U.S. Res. 62 Massachusetts Ave., 16th and 17th Sts., NW.	Gaetano Trentanove	The memorial to Daniel Webster, famous expounder and defender of the Constitution, noted American lawyer and statesman, is of bronze on a granite pedestal. It shows Webster standing and is 30 feet high with base. On the face of the pedestal is a bronze tablet representing the Webster-Hayne Debate in 1830 during his service with the Congress Webster was Secretary of State from 1841-1843. A gift from Stilson Hutchins, founder of the Washington Post, the statue was erected without cost to the U.S. under Act approved July 1, 1898 (30 Stat. 625) at a cost of $25,000. The Act appropriated $4,000 for his pedestal. Dedicated on January 18, 1900.
Witherspoon, John	U.S. Res. 150A, Connecticut Ave., and N Sts., NW.	William Couper	John Witherspoon, born in Scotland, was a noted Presbyterian Minister and patriot of the new country. He was a signer of the Declaration of Independence and served as President of Princeton. He was one of the organizers of the Presbyterian Church in America. The statue of bronze depicts Witherspoon standing with a book in his right hand. It is on a granite pedestal and was a gift of the Witherspoon Memorial Association; $4,000 was appropriated toward pedestal under Act of May 29, 1908 (35 Stat. 579). Dedicated on May 20, 1909.
Zero Milestone	Grounds south of White House and north of Ellipse	Architect - Horace Peaslee	The Zero Milestone is a pink granite shaft, 4 ft. high which marks the official starting point of all roads in the U.S. On top is a bronze compass. Used as a starting point for the first trans-continental motor caravan in 1919. The Milestone is a gift of the Lee Highway Association under Act of June 5, 1920 which authorized its erection without expense to the U.S. Dedicated on June 4, 1923 (41 Stat. 1062).

PROPOSED STATUES OR MEMORIALS

Name	Location	Sculpture	Description
American Legion Freedom Bell	to be determined		Public Law 94-483, dated Oct. 12, 1976 authorized the American Legion to erect on parklands and present to the Congress of the United States on behalf of the Children of America, the American Legion Freedom Bell in honor of the Bicentennial celebration of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.
Muhlenberg, Peter	U.S. Reservation 397 Connecticut Ave. & 36th & Ellicotts Sts., NW.		Public resolution No. 30, approved May 2, 1928 authorized a memorial to Peter Muhlenberg, eminent statesman, clergyman, and soldier. The authorization selected site in Reservation 397. Preliminary plans have been approved by the National Capital Planning Commission and the Commission of Fine Arts.
Pershing, John J. General	U.S. Reservation 617 14th & Pennsylvania Ave., NW.		Public law 461 (70 Stat. 84) April 2, 1956 authorized the American Battle Monuments Commission to prepare plans. Public Law 89-786 (80 Stat. 1377) November 7, 1966 authorized the erection of the memorial on U.S. Reservation 617. Also, plans are to be approved by the Presidents temporary commission on Pennsylvania Avenue or its successor now the Pennsylvania Avenue Development Corporation.

Name	Location	Sculpture	Description
Roosevelt, Franklin Delano	Reserved site in West Potomac Park		Public Law 372, approved August 11, 1955, established the FDR Memorial Commission. P.L. 86-214 approved September 1, 1959, reserved a site in West Potomac Park also a proclamation was signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson dated January 20, 1969, proclaiming that the land reserved by the Act of September 1, 1959, be designated Franklin D. Roosevelt Memorial Park, area of West Potomac Park. P.L. 92-332 approved June 30, 1972, authorized the Secretary of the Interior to participate in the planning and design of the memorial. Design of the memorial is being prepared by Lawrence Halprin for the FDR Memorial Commission and the National Park Service
Wilson Memorial	To be determined		The memorial to President Woodrow Wilson will be erected under plans by the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Commission which was established by President John Kennedy under Act signed October 4, 1961. (75 Stat. 783).

☆ U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE (1977) - 244-8

statues, monuments and memorials in the parks of the national capital

june 1977